++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry with clear spells overnight. Cold.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly dry overnight, although a few showers are still possible across the Pennines. Clear skies developing for most, with winds easing. A cold night, with some mist and fog patches forming in places and a localised frost possible by dawn. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tuesday:
Any early fog patches clearing, with sunny spells following for most. Most parts staying dry, although the odd afternoon shower developing. Light winds, but feeling rather cool. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Bright or sunny spells but also showers Wednesday and Thursday, especially on coasts. Cold especially in brisk winds, with coastal gales possible. Likely drier but cloudy Friday, and still breezy.
